

This book is designed to contain a wide range of information of interest and practical use to those involved in business dealings with China. There are summaries of national and political circumstances and profiles of major industries, as well as a description of the corporate framework and the subject of business etiquette. Following on from the briefing sections are a series of guides to the country's main business centres. Each guide in this series gives an overview of the city, includes hotel and restaurant recommendations that specifically address business needs, covers all the important extras, such as sightseeing, shopping, entertainment, sports, and fitness, and includes a section on local resources and business services. There is also a planning and reference section covering entry details, transport, communications, public holidays, climate, crime and lots more.
