

Firehouse Seven is a busy fire station staffed by a dedicated team of men and women. The station also has a resident mouse who makes himself at home in the pocket of Firefighter Evans bunker coat. Unfortunately, Evan is the firehouse grump and he chases the mouse away. As winter arrives and Christmas approaches, the station is beautifully decorated but Evan is sad and quiet. A Christmas Eve fire finds Evan lost and tired in a smokey house. A magical moment helps him escape the house. And there is an amazing, joyous reunion at Firehouse Seven with his rescuer. Christmas Miracle at Firehouse Seven has messages of caring, teamwork, and courage. It is a beautiful story for grandparents and parents to read to their children.
