

El Citibank establecio su primera sucursal en la Argentina en 1914. Desde entonces, ha jugado un papel silencioso pero fundamental en la historia de la Argentina. Su intervencion fue crucial en la economia nacional y en el desarrollo del mercado financiero, pero tambien en el manejo interesado de las politicas monetarias, en la gestion de la deuda externa, en la vinculacion entre el poder politico y los lobbies empresarios de turno. Su influencia se hizo mas evidente en la decada del 90, como protagonistas de varios escandalos. Los autores describen aqui todos los entretelones del accionar del Citibank, su creciente relacion con el poder politico menemista, el apoderamiento a traves del holding CEI de empresas de los sectores mas rentables que vendio el Estado, su participacion en resonantes hechos de corrupcion, en particular el lavado de dinero que fue objeto de investigacion en el Senado de los Estados Unidos y en la Argentina.
