She dreamt of him before ever meeting him. He found her when she needed him the most. When Leona sees Nathanielâ€™a guy she has had vivid dreams aboutâ€™she decides not to approach him out of the bizarreness of the situation. How could it be that heâ€™TM's right in front of her? A perfect stranger that she has never metâ€™except in her dreams. She freezes at the sight of her walking dream, and decides to simply admire from afar. Fate, on the other hand, has other ideas, and steps in to insinuate them into each otherâ€™TM's lives at an extremely important time. Nathaniel, an officer of the law, has been on the hunt for his brotherâ€™TM's killer for over a year. But when Leona enters the picture, Nathaniel is compelled to protect her in a way that he failed to protect his brother. For Leona, Nathaniel turns out to not only be a dream guy in her sleep state, but in her waking life as well. While the couple manages to find love, obstacles loom as Leona struggles to find out who is trying to harm her, and why. Likewise, someone is out to ruin Nathanielâ€™TM's life by interfering with his dream of avenging his brother, Isaacâ€™TM's, death. Incredible Dreams reveals many challenges for Leona and Nathanielâ€™individually, as well as collectively. Will they survive all that has the power to pull them apart? Or will they succumb to the pressures and decide that being together is just too much to endure?
