Life is worth living because there is a living God who gives purpose and meaning to every human life.

For the past few days, she's been asking the people around her "kids, friends, co-workers" what they think makes life worth living, and the answers have been. Depression is a monster that infests your head with lies until they become your truth. And its most potent, most dangerous and most infectious lie is that your life does not have value and is not worth living. This lie has become my truth on and off for years. Make the most of this life - the things that can make you smile. Learn and love; learn to love. You may think you aren't worth it, but life is worth it. The world is vast. Is life worth living? Yes. An examination of what makes life worth living starts with an honest process of inward self-reflection. Click here to learn more!
