

If in these matter-of-fact days there be any stars that still preside over our destinies, then you and I, my boys, must, I think, have been born under the sign Pisces, the fish with glittering scales unless, indeed, A quarius, the watercarrier, is but the bearer of a celestial bait-can and intent upon his neighbouring fishes. And of you two, who each began your fishing before your seventh year was out, I have good hope of making salmon fishers, especially since that day when you, Drewett, were so fortunate as to hook and, with much luck and with some little help, to land your first grilse a fish of 4I bs. when worming for dace that very first season. One of you, indeed, began the taking of fish at the age of three by stealing, much to the joy of the proprietor, and to the detriment of your clothing, a small sea-trout from a fishmongers slab, over which you, standing on tiptoe, were at that time barely able to peep.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
