

A little slip of a girl waltzed passed him at a church dance and her scent imprinted on his soul. They made no physical contact, no verbal contact and no eye contact. But one fleeting glance imbedded her image in his heart. Then he dreamt of her night after restless night. Thus began the love between a 17 year old high school girl and a young man unknowingly headed toward war, but still burning with love after more than six decades of marriage. Join their adventures. Dare to follow the sometimes turbulent waters as they bravely made a life complete with loving family despite multiple setbacks.
