

As the world and its society grow, anti-Semitism seems to grow with them. Groups from the extreme right, extreme left, and Islam harbor more deep resentment towards Jewish people than ever before, and they're starting at the youngest ages imaginable. Anti-Semitism has made its way into mainstream life in a non-violent way, from jokes to blunders, making the lowly reported violent actions seem more acceptable. Why are the Jews hated so much, and what are the reasons for this hatred? My Heartbreak for the Jews will look at the defined anti-Semitic groups and their reasons for hatred, and how those reasons are unfounded and ignorant. Maybe discussing it and writing about it will be the key to ending anti-Semitism for good.
