

This book reveals the spiritual warfare with which many of us may be blissfully unaware. After reading this book, it is hoped that the reader will recognise the way the devil tries to attack us and spoil that relationship with God and each other. We need to see this for what it is, and know how to prevent the devil making a meal of us. This is the responsibility we need to take, and, with God's help, rise up in victory over wrong thinking.
