

From Best Dramatic Screenwriter Keisha Orphey comes the highly anticipated novel based on a captivating story about love and untimely revenge. On May 9, 1995, Dawn Miles life spun out of control and dove head-first into a living nightmare. Desperate to pay her bills and against her better judgement, she took an alleged drug dealer across state lines in search of a disabled vehicle. What she found instead would change her life forever. Amos Jones was a wanted man, yet elusive enough to stay off the radar, that is until DEA agents and local police officers joined forces in a two-year long sting operation boxing him in and implicating Dawn. Then, someone bails Amos out of jail posting his one million dollar bond -- in cash -- leaving Dawn incarcerated and a star witness for the state. Even before the prosecutor is murdered, Dawns attorney Lydia Hall suspects her client is in danger ... and the killer is closer than they could have ever imagined. www.keishaorphey.com
