

This compelling visual and written experience tells the true story of the many years of upheaval in Israel and the world as seen through the eyes of a mother and artist. Its a highly personal and moving account which is presented in a stunning full color, hardcover coffee table album format. The author writes that , This book is my prayer... I hope to unlock the hearts of others and, in some way, effect change and open a new and better chapter for the Jewish people and for all of mankind.
