

A powerful and profound approach to Peak Performance On and Off the course. It is much more than just exercises! This book addresses the larger system of yoga which includes philosophy, meditation, breathing, physical postures and higher states of consciousness. The Yoga of Golf provides a gateway to actually move past the limitations of the mind and open the doorway to the Zone. One of the most daunting tasks for a golf instructor is to teach the student to stay in the present. Amateur golfers constantly berate themselves for a poor last shot or mentally project what they believe they will score for the day. Dr. Mann supplies excellent techniques to help the golfer with both concentration and the ability to live in the present. The Yoga of Golf is readable, well structured and informative for both the professional and the striving, amateur golfer. I urge all my students to read and practice the techniques clearly taught in The Yoga of Golf. Patrick Boyd, Golf Professional at MountainGate CC. Pat is a former Hogan (Nike) Tour player and is best remembered for the years he won the Utah Open, the Northern California Open and the Alaska Open, all with course records. A holder of 19 course records nationally, Boyd is still the course record holder at these California courses; Adobe Creek in Petaluma, Bayonet Course at Fort Ord, Boundary Oak in Walnut Creek, Chardonnay Vineyards in Napa, Club Shakespeare in Napa, Fountain Grove in Santa Rosa, and Sonoma National in Sonoma California.
